Gorilla Activator [Win/Mac]

The Gorilla schedule app is the only application designed specifically to help film and video production professionals manage the production and the crew in a better way. It's designed to give you the ability to schedule, manage and pay your crew all in one place. Gorilla is the number one scheduler for professionals and non-professionals alike! Why do so many people think Gorilla is just for the big budget projects? Gorilla is actually easier to use and offers more features for the smaller companies too! Gorilla has been designed to make it easier for the crew to record all of their details in one place. You can easily see if a scene is on time, if everyone is present, if there are changes to the crew, if the venue is available and even if there are any outstanding payments that need to be made. Gorilla has been designed to give you complete transparency and help you manage your business. The Gorilla team use the app themselves and have also been using it for years to manage their production company and crew in a professional way. The app is built from the ground up and it offers a great user experience that helps Gorilla to stand out from the rest. Gorilla is also a very stable application and has had no issues at all in its life. The Gorilla team are proud of the fact that they have not crashed or had any issues, which is extremely rare in the app world. The Gorilla team use Gorilla to keep track of all of the projects they are working on and the crew for each project. Gorilla works with various formats, including the best industry standard Avid, as well as Final Cut Pro X and Premiere Pro. Gorilla has been designed to work with other programs so it can be used in any production situation. Gorilla includes features for audio, visual and multi-camera productions. Gorilla can even help you manage entire virtual sets. The app works on any platform and even has multi-platform support. Gorilla also has a feature called Live

Preview that shows exactly what you will see on set, the graphics used, the actors, as well as their name and the date. This feature can be used in live shooting situations too, so you can work with your crew in real-time. Gorilla has been designed with features that really make it shine! Gorilla offers features that simply couldn't exist in other scheduling and management apps, including: - A complete crew management system - Filming and shooting reports - Push notifications

For more information: Informations about Script Information Reviews "This is a little more than just a calendaring tool. The scheduling section is brilliant and integrates with various other tools (Filmmaker's Muse, Filmmaker's Cinema and Movie planner), making the job of tracking and planning your projects (and your life) that little bit easier." --Blazed "Gorilla is a very smart and efficient tool. It can be used to manage your movie production in every single aspect, from start to finish, from your crew to locations, equipment and cast. The feature set may be a little overwhelming at times, but it's a really well thought out tool that comes with plenty of examples and tips. If you have been working with other tools to track the production of your film, you can easily import the screenplay and add custom fields to it. It's all there in one place with a minimal learning curve." --News-Too "Gorilla's purpose is to simplify your film production management. It can be used for all types of films, from short films to big movies. The tool comes with a variety of features that can handle your needs in different ways. It may be a little bit overwhelming at first, but after that, it's really simple to use and use it to manage every aspect of your movie production." --Show-Me-
